CRANFEST 2011

Two very warm, summer evenings, great live music and lots of people - we couldn't have asked for a better Cranfest! Thanks so much to all of you who came out and helped us raise $2000.00 for the Merigomish Fire Department! A truly successful weekend!

HURRICANE IRENE

Although we had little damage here, the strong winds of Irene were felt throughout Monday morning. Some tree limbs blew down and a few runaway lawn chairs, but other than that we faired out well. Thank you campers for doing such a great job at Summer vacation has come and gone for the kids. It's so hard to believe that all of a sudden, we are buying school supplies and Mking mad trips to Halifax dropping too much cash on clothes they have to have!

battening down the hatches!!

NOTICE

The pool will be closed on September 18th for the rest of the season due to maintenance and winterization.

Back to early bed-times, homework and routines!! Where would the children be without all of that?

Wishin all you Cranberry kids a wonderful 2011—2012 school year! You guys all rock!!
