

The Cranberry News

July 16th 2010

Time is a flyin'!

WOW! So hard to believe we are two weeks into July! The weather, for the most part has certainly cooperated with us! Here's to a fun filled "rest of summer" with good times and fond memories!

LOST AND FOUND

There is quite a bit of clothing left behind both at the pool and the playground. Some very nice and expensive clothing, hoodies, etc. All items are now in a box at the office.

A black SAMSUNG cell phone was lost in the campground today. If any one comes across it, please pass it in to Janet, thanks!

A VERY SPECIAL EVENT

Baby Madison, grand daughter of Kari MacNaughton (site # 30) was born on May 28th 2010 with a rare heart defect, She has endured one open heart surgery and has two more to go. With a long road ahead of Madison and her family, a benefit is being held for her Saturday night, July 17th at the White tail Pub from 8 - 2. Driving arrangements can be made, just ask Janet!

Christmas at The Cranberry!

Next weekend is Christmas!! Everyone get out your mistle toe and egg nog! First of all, everyone can decorate their trailer for the festive weekend, judging will be Saturday evening. There will be two categories—most festive and most creative. Good luck to everyone! Also, Santa will be delivering presents on Sunday. To all parents who would like to have their children receive a gift from Santa, please purchase a gift with a 10.00 limit, wrap it, put their name on it and drop it off to me at the office. Santa will pick the gifts up to deliver to all the boys and girls! So—The list of events are as follows :

Friday July 23rd - I am sure the competition will be fierce as everyone gets their decorations up for Christmas!

Saturday July 24th - 1:00—snow ball fight—yup that's right— in main field, toboggan races too!

2:00—washer toss tournament, Christmas style! All participants should dress for the occasion. Dust off your elf suit!

6:00—caroling in the four wheeler. Come on everybody, hop in the wagon and sing some carols!

8:00—Christmas drink of the week—make a pitcher of your favorite drink, put a Yule tide twist on it and enter our competition! At the "A" frame.

9:00—Christmas Eve Party—"A" frame. Munchies provided, just bring a drink and your singing voice!

Sunday July 25th—It's Christmas day!!!

12:00—All kids meet at the "A" frame to meet Santa

2:00—Christmas dinner! Pot Luck! Location—undetermined. A sign up list will circulate this weekend for all those interested in participating.

SATURDAY JULY 31st is 80's NIGHT!!! Start thinking about your