WHAT A GREAT LONG WEEKEND!

With blue skies and sunshine, that delicious aroma of barbeques and the laughter of children, the official camping season is here! So nice to see everyone out, enjoying the beautiful weather. With every site booked, the weekend was easy! Thanks everyone!

Please Note

Everyone has noticed our new "sorting stations". After speaking with Pictou County

Solid Waste, we are required to recycle all materials as well as compost. This also means that black bags are no longer acceptable. Pictou County Solid Waste has dropped off packages at the office for you. Please drop by to get yours. Your help and compliance with this is appreciated!

*please note— cardboard boxes, paper bags egg cartons and pizza boxes are all compostable.

*Milk cartons are considered plastic.

*children should be educated about recycling.

The "make your own sundae" was a great success. Mosall the kids got to enjoy a sundae made just to their liking. We will be doing this again on June 30th, same time same place! "A" frame at 2:00

Happy 2012 season everyone!!!

Also, best all around red neck prize, toilet seat throw, other red neck games and of course the ‘ol shindig. Dance the night away at our redneck themed dance!!

JUNE 8th—Red Neck weekend

My Favourite Recipe

Something new in the Cranberrynews, if you have a favourite summer time, recipe, please submit it to the news and we will feature it here! This week, here is one of my favourites:

Banana S’mores!

Add some fruit to your smore and bananas with chocolate and marshmallows is a classic tasty combination.

So, you will need, marshmallows, pure milk chocolate, sliced bananas and graham wafers. Roast marshmallows over campfire. Place on graham wafer, add sliced bananas and chocolate.

Cover with another wafer and enjoy!!
