CRANFEST!!!

The third weekend in August is fast approaching, which means it's Cranfest time!! August 17th - Uncalled Four! This is their third year for playing with us, and a couple of band members actually flew in from out west to play for us! The dance floor is always hopping with these boys!!

August 18th - Caustic! Yes finally, Caustic! Can't wait to hear these guys rip it up for us with their debut performance here at Cranberry Campground!

A big thank you to Ivor McCrae and his team for providing us with Dairy Queen cheese burgers on both nights! Yummm, I can't wait!!

Please make a donation at the door, and come on out, dance the nights away, under the stars, as we help Kyle Lamey and his family on their journey to recovery.

All profits will go to the Lamey family (Site # 38).

Looking forward to a great time being had by all!!!

Halloween night

I think it is safe to say there were no shortages of treats on Saturday night! With over one hundred kids bouncing around from door to door, there was a lot of hustle and bustle! The costumes were great! Please check out our facebook page to see some pics!

The adults who participated in the haunted trail, thanks so much for helping out. Funny how scaring children can be sooo fun!

The adults out done themselves with their costumes as well, with most creative to Terri MacDonald, and Terri Hillier. Best costume to Hot, blonde Sonya with her red boots and gloves!!

ONE NIGHT IN THE CARIBBEAN

What a busy few weeks! With Halloween last weekend, Cranfest this weekend and Caribbean night next weekend. What better way to enjoy one of the last weekends of summer with a pig roast, tropical drinks, grass huts and good friends!!

We will spit the pig early in the morning, letting it roast all day. When the pig is done, we will bring your favourite side and have a true Caribbean meal. We will also limbo, walk the plank and lawn bowl while the pig is cooking. There may be some tropical punches too! Everyone should break out your best “down south tourist attire” - your best bright, flowered shirt and straw hat or grass skirt and flowers! We will have lots of Caribbean music and a big bonfire with dancing to finish off our perfect Caribbean day! Hope everyone will come on out and have some fun!!

Back to School

Wow—So hard to believe summer can go by so quick! Almost time to shop, shop, shop!! With labour day fast approaching, we would like to make it the best one yet! Fun for everyone! Does anyone have any ideas that we could do for labour day? (besides or normal corn boil, games and fireworks). Please let us know!!
